FREE FOR ALL.

There is no question whatever that any attempt in the coming election to override or evade the law will react disastrously upon the party that makes it.

The Goebelite candidate for Congress, especially, will be the beneficiary of an honest enforcement of the law. The National Government cannot, and will not, permit a violation of laws which are enacted for the benefit of all. There is no reason why they should not be faithfully observed in Kentucky as elsewhere.

SUFFRAGE MUST NOT BE CORRUPTED OR COERCED.

It must be distinctly understood, therefore, that all violations of the election laws will be carefully noted, and the prescribed penalties rigorously and impartially enforced in every case.

The hand of the law will lie heavy upon all such offenders, high and low.

"The Melancholy Days" will begin coming Wednesday, and they'll come good and hard to the Goebelized Democracy.

The man who does not violate law need have no fear of being arrested or prosecuted. It will be to the interest and honor of every citizen—Democrat and Republican—to see that no one commits the slightest wrong at tomorrow's election.

WATCH the election booth. One Goebelish scheme is to "sandwich" a colored man between two Goebelites, and when they enter the booth the colored man is to pass his ballot over the top of the booth to one of the Goebelites and the latter is to stamp his ballot for him.

THE HON. CHARLES J. BRONSTON has some pride still as a Kentuckian in the record of the Kentucky Courts. He says:

"For one I hope the Court of Appeals will reverse all the cases so far tried, and then let no strangers, but Kentucky Democratic lawyers prosecute them. No peace can come to Kentucky until the assassin of GOEBEL and the conspirators in the crime have been caught and hung."

Every Kentuckian will say Amen to this. But because of the $100,000 fund CAMPBELL and Campbellism are here, and we are as far as ever from finding the man or men responsible for GOEBEL's death.

THERE are some people in Maysville to whom the following applies with trip-hammer force. The class addressed will do well to heed the advice given. It is from The Louisville Evening Post—

A WORD TO BUMMERS.

"It is not to the Evening Post address the bummers. Its readers are generally of another class. But the bummers are human, very human. When they are in distress they are entitled to our sympathy. For now the bummers of Kentucky are in the cold, and hungry. They expected much comfort from GOEBEL, but they have none to get from BRONSTON. GOEBEL was once King. With the Goebel Law back of him he would have been the law-maker and the patronage distributor of Kentucky; but now BRONSTON can steal the election under the Goebel Law, he can't rule under it, for in January the Goebel Law will breathe its last. BRONSTON, then, will be merely the holder of a $60,000 stolen office. What can a bummer expect from him? Officers? Every office has been filled; but even if other kind? The only pie young BRONSTON can distribute are such mud pies as other children make.

"No; the truth is, BRONSTON can offer no political reward any pay, to make him run the risk of being put behind the bars for three years, like CRITES, MULLEN, O'NEILL and LOCKE.

"It is one encouraging feature of the present contest that all the minor state officers have been disposed of, and the temptation to the Goebelite henchmen to commit election crimes is very small. Their reward is remote, uncertain and insignificant.

"Of course the leaders like HAINES and BLACKWATER have a desperate desire to retain their ascendancy. There are probably several thousand lesser Goebelite leaders who share that desire, but the ordinary boys in the trenches, the ordinary precinct workers, have nothing in sight except a BRONSTON can again steal the Governorship.

"And now we want to say a sympathetic word of advice to the bummers. Our advice is 'Don't! Don't steal, or you will land in prison. Don't interfere with voters, or instead of eating bread and pie you will be dining on cold water and hard tack for some three years with CRITES and his crowd. Don't try to keep Republican inspectors out of the polls, and don't tamper with the ballots, or instead of getting a good position under some free-promising Goebelite officeholder or office-seeker, you may get a position of a very different kind and find yourself stationed in a cold cell in a rock-walled prison. Of course the fellows that use you will tell you there is no danger. They told CRITES and MULLEN and O'NEILL that. Of course they will show a ten or twenty or fifty-dollar bill into your hand and tell you that will amply pay you for the risk. Ask CRITES and MULLEN if it does.

"Citizen bummers, we are giving you good advice, and if it is good, ignore it, and well-repent at your leisure when you have learned the plain truth that after election provisions of the amended law under which the coming election will be held—

It will be well for some people in Maysville and some people in Mason county to keep in mind the following provision of the amended law under which the coming election will be held—

Sec. 15. Any person or persons who shall unlawfully attempt to prevent, or prevent any voter from casting his ballot, or shall attempt to, or intimidate any person or voter so as to prevent him from casting his ballot, or who shall unlawfully interfere with the officers of election in the discharge of their duties as such, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction, be confined in the Penitentiary for a period of years, of not less than one nor more than five years, for each offense. The fact that the person or persons so offending may be an officer or officers of the Federal Government, or of the state, or any district, county, town or city thereof, or of any other body, shall not relieve them of the responsibility or penalty for the violation of this section.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Will Only Strengthen the Testimony of Maysville Citizens.

The testimony which follows will stand the test of closest investigation. Cross-examination of such evidence will strengthen it. Proof of this nature is plentiful in Maysville and the most skeptical can hardly doubt the claims made for "The Little Conqueror" when placed face to face with the public utterances of friends, neighbors and local citizens. Read the experience given below.

Mr. Pierce Mills of 922 Forest avenue says:

"The experience Mr. Mills had with Doan's Kidney Pills gave him a high appreciation of their value. He procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. The results obtained leads him to speak in high praise of this effective kidney remedy."

MURDER AND RIOTING.

One Man Dead and Ten Men in Jail at Lexington—Wanted to Burn a Saloon.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 5.—As the aftermath of a riotous night in Yell-mountain, a northwestern suburb of the city, George Broadus, colored, is dead and David Thomas, Charles Downing, Life Johnson, Will Johnson, Beauchamp Collins, Wilbur Kelley (all white), Sam Hope, Louis Stevenson, Frank Prader and "Red Tom" Davis (all colored) are in jail on charges of murder and rioting.

David Thomas, for three years an employee of the thoroughbred farm of Col. Milton Young, came to the city about three weeks ago and opened a cheap drink house in Yell-mountain. He wanted the negro trade of the place, and an inducement treated them liberally. Business was so rushing by last midnight that Thomas called Life Johnson and Charles Downing to help him behind the bar.

Tom Davis started an argument with Sam Hope. Thomas got a shotgun, but later made a motion as if to draw a weapon. Thomas was raising a glass of beer to his lips, but instead of transferring the beverage to his stomach, he fired glass and all into Davis' face. He reached for the shotgun, but David Thomas, who had beaten him to it, raised the gun over the level of the bar, Downing discharged one of the loads. It entered soliloquy into the head of Geo. Broadus, who fell forward on his counter. This shot proved the signal for one of the worst riots that the city has known for years.

No less than 200 pistols were whipped out by the people in the bar-room, and many shots were fired.

MANY INVITATIONS.

The wedding of Gov. J. C. W. Beckham and Miss Joseph Anderson Fugate, Place November 21.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 5.—The invitations to the wedding of Gov. Beckham and Miss Joseph Anderson Fugate request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Jean Raphael, to Mr. John Crepps Wickliffe Beckmann, on Wednesday evening, November 21, 1900, at 8:30 o'clock. First Presbyterian church, Owensboro, Ky.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Leslie Hudson, of Owensboro, and Rev. W. E. Patterson, of Bardonia, Ky. A reception will be held after the ceremony at the residence of Col. Fugate, the bride's father, in South Frederic street. Gov. Beckham and his bride will leave at midnight for Chicago on the special car of the former's brother-in-law, W. H. Kinsler, general passenger agent of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad.

W. H. Newman, president of the Lake Shore road, will be in charge, and other guests will be members of the Kinsler party. Gov. Beckham will return almost immediately to Kentucky, and will go to New Orleans and southern points on a wedding journey later on.

Worked on Sunday.

Louisville, Nov. 5.—An interesting point of law was decided by Judge Miller in the case of Walter C. Graves, who sued to enforce a mechanic's lien for $151 for repairs on an engine in a veneer mill. The work was done on Sunday. Judge Miller held that the lien does not hold, as the law does not recognize work on Sunday, except under great necessity.

Jury Fails to Agree.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 5.—The jury in the case involving the property of Robinson White, valued at $60,000, unable to return a verdict, has been discharged. Relatives of White fought the will, as he left the major portion of his estate to G. W. Linkenfelter, who was superintendent of his farm and no relation.

Two Stabbing Affrays.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 5.—Thomas Clark was stabbed in the neck by Jeff Davis and perhaps fatally wounded. Both have families and a grudge existed between them. At the same time, in another part of town, Ed Parrish, colored, was seriously cut in the face by George Rice, white. Parrish was after Rice with a razor.

Three Slayers Sentenced.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—Ward Taylor, colored, who killed his brother Leonard, was given 15 years in the penitentiary; Charles Carter, colored, was given 15 years for killing a mistress, Maggie Thomas, and George Cole, who killed his friend in a row, was given ten years.

Castlemans Resigns.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.—Gen. John B. Castlemans has tendered his resignation as adjutant general of Gov. Beckham. Gen. Castlemans took the step for the reason that his duties are now purely nominal, but he does not wish any responsibility.

Shot and Killed.

Louisville, Nov. 5.—Charles Dickey, colored, was shot and instantly killed by Herman Clay, also colored, here Sunday night. The men quarreled in a crap game and the shooting was justifiable. Clay surrendered.

JUMPING CLAIMS.

That Was the Order of the Day at Nome, Alaska, Before the Arrival of the Military.

BLOODSHED AND DISORDER AVERTED.

Labor Organizations Prevented Many Men From Working for Less Than One Dollar an Hour.

There is a Large Area in the Territory Which Has Not Been Prospected Where Gold Can Yet Be Found.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Brig. Gen. George M. Randall, commanding the Department of Alaska, who arrived here September 20, at St. Michael, has submitted his annual report. A great deal of the report is devoted to the conditions at Nome, which he found upon his arrival at a critical stage. It was difficult to obtain convictions by a jury trial in the United States commissioner's court, which emboldened the lawless. Labor organization prevented the men from working for less than $1 an hour, and were the cause of much destruction and want and destruction of property.

Many People Arrived in June. Fully 15,000 people arrived at Nome in June. Claim jumping was the order of the day. Nearly every one seemed to think he had a divine right to take possession of a claim or town lot which he found. Many property owners were disposed to defend their rights by taking the law in their own hands. The arrival of troops prevented bloodshed and serious disorder. On the morning of the chamber of commerce, the military took charge, thoroughly examined into all complaints, and where the rights of property were determined placed it in the possession of the lawful owner. Capt. W. A. Betbel, who acted as judge advocate in these cases, is highly praised by Gen. Randall.

The Sanitary Conditions. The sanitary conditions were placed under control of Maj. Chas. E. Zett, surgeon, who has heretofore reported upon conditions. The energetic efforts of the military improved these conditions during the summer.

There were about 500 men working on the beach at Nome with machinery at one time, and many declined to give answers concerning the prospects for gold, while others admitted they were taking out only from $2 to $4 a day. The beach was practically worked out last year. The tundra is believed to be rich, but it would require large capital to produce results.

Military Post at St. Michaels. There is a large area of country which has not been prospected, where gold can be found. Only the military men of experience to develop such a country. Gen. Randall discusses the various points where mining operations have been conducted.

He says it has been decided to establish a permanent military post on the island of St. Michaels. He recommends the purchase of two small wheel steamers for operations on the Yukon and that all coal, forage and building material intended for Alaska be stored at Seattle from Seattle not later than June 15 and shipped in sailing vessels for economy; also that a cable be laid from Seattle, via Juneau and Skagway.

ST. PAUL DISABLED.

An Accident That Will Require Five Months to Repair and Cost From $250,000 to $300,000.

New York, Nov. 5.—The steamship St. Paul, of the American line, Capt. Roberts in command, arrived in port Sunday 24 hours late, with her starboard propeller gone and her engine room badly damaged. Statements of different officials vary as to the cause of the accident, but the damage sustained by the steamship will probably amount to several hundred thousand dollars.

The St. Paul left Southampton and Cherbourg on October 27 with a full cargo, 316 cabin passengers and 245 in the steerage.

Acting Manager's Statement.

Samuel Bettie, the acting manager of the American line, said Sunday, after consultation with Chief Engineer Hunter:

"At 3:06 o'clock on Wednesday, while the ship was running at full speed, under the command of the captain, although she was pitching and rolling a good deal, the St. Paul's propeller probably struck a derelict. On the instant the propeller struck the ship and the extreme end of the propeller dropped into the sea and serious damage was done to the starboard engine, which was stopped within ten seconds. None of the ship was injured and there was no excitement among the passengers, many of whom remained undisturbed at dinner, unaware that an accident had occurred."

Another Account.

One of the engineers of the St. Paul made the following statement Sunday night:

"It will take five months to repair the damage, which is to the extent of from $250,000 to $300,000. The starboard engine is a wreck. The accident did not strike a derelict, but an unusually big sea struck her, throwing the stern out of water, and the propeller, having the resistance, made frightfully rapid revolutions which caused the starboard engine to race, and the starboard shaft broke in two, and the wheel fell into the water. The amount of damage done is not surprising when you take into consideration the sudden liberation of 10,000 horse power."

The St. Paul will leave on Tuesday for the Crumple shippard, Philadelphia, where the necessary repairs will be made. Meantime the President, which sailed on Wednesday for New York, will take the St. Paul's passengers, mail and freight to Southampton.

DIAN AFFAIRS.

The Annual Report of Agent Schoenfeld, in Charge of the Union Agency.

PROTECTION FOR INDIAN CITIZENS.

White Men Intrude Themselves Upon Redskins and Secure Possession of Their Prospective Allotments.

The Total Population of the "Five Civilized Tribes" Is Estimated at 54,750. Several Recommendations Made.

Washington, Nov. 5.—United States Indian Agent Schoenfeld, in charge of the Union agency, whose jurisdiction comprises the five civilized tribes, protests in his annual report against unlawful occupation of the Indian lands and urges strict congressional legislation to protect the Indian citizen against the encroachments of aggressive and grasping whites. Of 2,000 complaints filed against non-Indians in the last fiscal year, a large majority were against white men who in the past had intruded themselves upon the Indians and had refused their conduct to a sufficient degree to secure possession of their prospective allotments, and after having secured possession, refused either to pay rent or to vacate, thus preventing the Indians from receiving any rents or profits therefrom.

The Indian Lands.

Many of the Indians are too poor to institute suit for the possession and, therefore, are left helpless. The total population of the five civilized tribes is estimated at 54,750, comprising 30,235 Choctaw, 10,000 Chickasaw and Freedmen, 10,000 Creeks and Freedmen, 35,000 Cherokee and Freedmen and 3,000 Seminole, and the lands comprise a total of 117,726 acres.

The agent says that there is now every reason to believe that the Indian depredations and disturbances in the five tribes region are at an end. A few full-blooded Creeks are strenuously opposing the allotments of lands, and have banded together and refuse to appear to select their allotments.

To Tax Non-Citizen Residents.

A large majority of the Creeks, however, have actually made their selection. The report recommends that congress appropriate out of the Cherokee funds a sufficient amount to pay the indebtedness of the nation, that the government should give the five tribes to adopt a uniform system of taxing noncitizens residing and doing business in the limits of their nation, and that the government should be authorized to make any reformatory or reformatory be established.

Violators of the Law in Kentucky Will Be Prosecuted in the Federal Court.

There Will Be a Fair Vote and Count This Year or the Penitentiaries Will Be Overcrowded.

Louisville Evening Post, October 1st.

That wandering ignoramus, O. O. Stealey, in an opinion rendered this morning by way of New York, reverses Judge Evans' decision, cancels District Attorney Hill's instructions, and makes the startling announcement to the Court that the sections under which, according to Stealey in The Courier-Journal, it is proposed to surround the polls by Inspectors and Deputy Marshals to arrest every Democrat who dares to vote, has been repealed.

The announcement that these statutes have been repealed has been made time and again by District Attorney Hill, by Judge Evans and in The Evening Post. There is no purpose to surround the polls with Marshals or Inspectors. Notwithstanding the fact that the Courier-Journal has been making last year and now makes, there was no purpose of intimidating the voters of Louisville and no desire to do it. The repeal of the statutes has no bearing whatever upon the contest in Kentucky.

The statutes unrepealed are the ones that are terrorizing evidences; that are bringing conspiracies against the suffrage within the shadow of the Penitentiary. There is a large body of laws on the statute books of this State of Kentucky which have not been repealed, and which Mr. Stealey and his co-partners in ballot-box outrages have not been able to nullify.

They will not be repealed, and they will not be nullified prior to the election next Tuesday.

Further than this, they will be more rigidly enforced; enforced in a manner to make them effective, enforced in a manner to secure to every citizen his rights under the law. When acts are done to prevent the colored citizen from exercising the rights guaranteed by the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, or when there is a conspiracy to deprive a citizen of the rights secured to him by the Constitution and laws of the United States, the men guilty will be punished.

On the first violation of the statutes of the United States Tuesday morning warrants will be sworn out against the violators of the law. These warrants will be put in the hands of the Marshals or Deputy Marshals of the United States; they will be promptly served; the men guilty will be put under bond, and the evidence to sustain the charge will be gathered in the most systematic and thorough manner, so as to leave no doubt as to the ability of the Government to sustain the accusations they will make.

The Evening Post warns Mr. Stealey and his dupes in Louisville; it warns The Courier-Journal and its hirelings; it warns the whole Democratic conspiracy in the state of Kentucky that the power of the Federal Courts will be used to the utmost in enforcing the laws of the United States and in protecting at the coming election the right of suffrage. No law will be stretched beyond its clearly defined limitations; no repealed statutes will be put in operation; no scheme for surrounding the polls with Inspectors or Marshals will be contemplated, but full force of Federal authority will be used to protect Federal citizenship. The people will be made to the law; the law will be rigidly enforced, not only in Louisville, but throughout the state of Kentucky. The testimony will be gathered in advance of the election upon which to base the charge of conspiracy. Acts done in furtherance of that conspiracy will be clearly set forth and unfalsified by most systematic gathering of evidence that has ever been made in this state.

The people of Kentucky are aroused by the danger to the ballot, and they are determined to exhaust all the resources of the law to protect the ballot. Men who are not violating the law have nothing to fear, but men who violate it do it at their peril and do it in the light of repeated warnings from the bench and through the press. Now, let the play go on.

The local reporters of The Courier-Journal are on the ground, and are better informed than O. O. Stealey. This morning it says:

"Information has come to the ears of the Democrats from what appears to be a trustworthy source that the Republicans are planning a new election scheme. Their trick is to place private detectives at every Democratic polling place in the state and have them watch carefully every move made by the Democratic election officers and challengers, and if anything is attempted which they consider wrong to present the evidence to the Federal Grand Jury and ask to have the Democrats indicted."

This is the only indisputable statement of fact that has appeared in The Courier-Journal for twelve months. Nothing need be added to enforce its significance. The polls will be protected by law, and men violating the law will be promptly arrested.

To United States Inspectors, District of Kentucky—Sirs: Recently many inquiries have reached me from United States Commissioners as to the laws of the United States that apply to elections when no Congressman is elected, and to elections when a Congressman is elected, that I have thought it best to respond to all such inquiries by means of this circular letter.

First—Under section 507, Revised Statutes of the United States, it is made unlawful for any person to prevent, hinder or control a Negro from exercising, or in exercising the right of suffrage, by means of bribery or intimidation. This section applies to all elections, state or Congressional.

Second—Under section 540 it is made unlawful for two or more persons to conspire to commit an offense against the United States, or to defraud, or if two or more persons conspire to prevent, hinder or control a Negro from exercising the right of suffrage by means of bribery or intimidation, and one or more of such persons do any act to effect the object of the conspiracy, all the parties to the conspiracy become liable to the penalties denounced by this section.

Third—Under section 5503 of said statutes, if two or more persons conspire to defraud, oppress, threaten or intimidate any citizen, white or black, in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to them by the Constitution or laws of the United States, they become liable to very heavy penalties denounced by that section.

Section 2284 of said statutes was enacted to enforce the fifteenth amendment to the Constitution and grants to all citizens (white or black) the right not to be discriminated against on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude—in all elections, state and national—which right was also granted, as held by the Supreme Court in a number of cases, by said amendment of its own force.

Therefore, a conspiracy to discriminate against a voter on account of his color, in any election, is a conspiracy to prevent him from the exercise and enjoyment of a right existing under the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Fourth—Another Constitutional right that is granted to every citizen, white or black, is the right to vote in the elections for Congressmen. When a Congressman is elected the Constitutional right of the voter differs materially from his Constitutional right when no Congressman is elected. In the latter case, as above shown—in state elections only—his right is that he shall not be discriminated against on account of color, while in the former case his right is to vote, free from intimidation or hindrance, without regard to color, and if two or more persons conspire to intimidate, oppress, threaten or intimidate him in the free exercise and enjoyment of that right, they subject themselves to said heavy penalties—Ex parte Yarbrough, 110 U. S. 651.

The foregoing is my opinion on the law touching the question stated, and while all officers entrusted with the execution of the laws should see that they are faithfully executed on all violators, without regard to their political affiliations, they should also be exceedingly careful not to lend any official aid or sanction to anything intended or likely to be effective for political purposes only. Respectfully,

United States Attorney.
